Comet 1963

FRANK CODY HIGH SCHOOL

Volume 9

Frank Cody High School
Detroit, Michigan

Everyday Mr. Schumacher worked in his office, plowing through an acre of paper work.

Mr. Melvyn Smith, sponsor of The Cody Comet 1955-1960, is talking to Mr. Schumacher about the new showcase in front of the main office. This showcase was bought with Comet Funds and presented to the school by Mr. Smith's yearbook staffs.

Mr. Schumacher spoke to the assembled student body in the auditorium for the last time on Wednesday, June 20, 1962.

Mr. Schumacher watched some repair work in the welding shop as Mr. August Coallander and Danny Gunnerson fix the drum of the belt sander.

Dedicated To . . .

Herman G. Schumacher,

Principal of Cody High School

September, 1952-June, 1962

Mr. Ralph Lee, new principal, and friend watched the opening game of the 1962 football season. They saw The Cody Comets defeat the Southwestern Prospectors.

Mrs. Joyce Alexander, art teacher, showed Mr. Schumacher work of students in her crafts classes.

Students often saw Mr. Schumacher walking in the halls during change of classes.

Miss Lucy Duck, assistant principal, frequently consulted Mr. Schumacher on school policies.

Ten years of distinguished service

Mr. Schumacher often toured study halls during the school day.

Mr. Schumacher, like everybody else at Cody High School, always read the Cody Star once a month.

Mr. Ray Agren, assistant principal, worked closely with Mr. Schumacher on improvement of instruction at Cody High School.

One day, Mr. Schumacher walked in on Miss Frances McMullen while she was eating her lunch in the Cody Star Office. No one is supposed to eat outside of the cafeteria, so Mr. Schumacher felt it was his duty to write out a yellow slip.

President's Message

As we finish our last semester at Cody High School we find that graduation is a great turning point in our lives.

The future stands before us as a great door slowly opening to reveal a whole world of new experiences.

On the threshold of this new experience, we cannot help but realize that this door serves a twofold purpose. It is opening into the future but closing on the past.

Behind us lie twelve long years of hard study. This study has made possible the opening of the door and our passage into the future.

What lies beyond this door cannot be certain. For some graduates the end of public school education is a stepping stone on the way to higher education. These students will continue their learning at colleges and technical schools.

Others will enter the business world and put to use the training that they received here at Cody.

Many of us will serve our country and protect the future that we all look forward to.

These among others are the things that we are looking for when we find the door to the future lying open before us.

With a determination to succeed and a faith in God and our country, members of the January, 1963 graduating class look confidently toward their futures.

President's Message

Our years at Cody have not been spent in vain. During the last four years, we have been learning, maturing, and above all, preparing ourselves for the future. We have, each in our own way, been preparing for and gaining the necessary requirements to achieve our various goals. However different our preparations may have been, they all had something in common; most of them began in high-school. We are fortunate to have attended a school which could satisfy our many needs.

Voltaire once said, "Chance is a word void of sense, nothing can exist without a cause." Those who were fortunate enough to realize this, also recognized the fact that a decent future seldom can be attributed to chance; it must be caused. Our futures have found a cause, a cause which had its beginning here at Cody.

Our lives could almost be likened to a painting. If the composition and colors are put together in a haphazard way, with no thought or planning, the result will not be as pleasant as one might have wished. A good, solid composition does not just fall together. It must be caused. With planning, patience, and honest effort, the composition will materialize into an even greater painting, one of ourselves as adults.

CHESS CLUB members Dan Linn and James Smith of the meetings every Friday in Room 101. The club meets here under the guidance of Mr. Frank McVane, physics teacher. He added that the club is open to all students provided for members who wish to develop their chess brain.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB members are making valentines for patients at Children's Hospital. The purpose of the club is to acquaint students with various careers in the teaching profession. They do cadet teaching at the elementary school and go on field trips supervised by Mrs. Wanda Young, Miss Sandra Timmeracka, and Mrs. Elizabeth Larkins, Cody business teachers. This meeting was attended by: Diane Dunn, Mrs. Wanda Young (sponsor), Susan Brandt (treasurer), Marjorie Lebeck, Diana Wallace, Darlene Grant, Judy Buckwitz, Jacqueline Shorwel, Margaret Mathen Borg (secretary), Eugenia Fink, Robert Crossmeyer, Thomas Fink, and Patricia Fink.

THE HUMAN RELATIONS CLUB is discussing a book. The members plan to send books to the poor. They want to give books to people who have access only to communist schools. First Row: Mr. Eugene Link (sponsor), John Manzi, Ron Medico (treasurer). Second Row: Karen Vardy, Helga Gable, Brian Kujawa. Third Row: Joan Berjeski (president), Mrs. Sylvia Druckman, Zeaira Rojas (exchange). Fourth Row: Janet Bondy, Mr. Kenneth Miyoshi. Fifth Row: Shirley Mary and Joni Fontes (vice-president).

CLUBS

COIN CLUB members investigate the history of coins and the money-making opportunities for collectors. The minute the photographer finished taking this picture, they asked him if they might inspect his change. Eddie Stonebraker, Mr. George Needell (sponsor) Gerald Silhanek (treasurer), Steven Mitchell (president), Greg Jablonski, Jim Farnell (vice-president).

THE SCIENCE CLUB and Mr. ... incubated eggs for temperature ... The ... club is to bring together ... interest in science and to make ... school. Members ... Kruze

GOING TO COLLEGE? YOU NEED THIS FOLDER

You will find this folder helpful in planning the financial part of your college career. It tells how NBD loans money for college expenses with up to six years to repay in monthly installments. There is a handy Check List for personal expenses so often overlooked when preparing a college budget. Typical costs are shown as a guide for figuring your own. Folder mailed on request.
